(BACK AWAY) There are signs that Congress is backing away from some of its more radical proposals.

(BE DOWN) The administration is not backing down from its intent to raise revenues.

(BACK UP) Now, Mr. M. has profits to back up his predictions about online markets.

(BE /FURTHER/ ALONG) Ericsson is further along in developing working modems.

(BE AROUND) Mr. E. is still very much around, although no longer in day-to-day management. The group has been around only since June 2010.

(BE AT) Privatizing the airports would enable them (airlines) to finance their growth like any other corporation in US. And while we are at it, let's privatize the air-traffic control network as well.

(BE AT hand) Now a solution is at hand.
(BE AT odds) They have been increasingly at odds over how to deal with proposals from the United States to get the peace process moving.

(BE AT one) Here the art and craft of couture once again become the cornerstones of fashion. In that, he and W. are at one.

(BE BEHIND) The trouble is the contractors are behind schedule.
 There is some trouble on the shop floor. I've got a feeling that one of the shop stewards is behind this.

(BE DONE FOR) This firm is done for.

(BE DOWN) The price of fruit is down.

(BE DOWN TO) It's hard to know how much of this is down to simple greed.

(BE FED UP /WITH/) The big banks are fed up with being repeatedly ordered to rescue weaker banks.

(BE FOR) We don't think it is possible to live in today's world from positions of strength. But that doesn't mean that we are for talking from positions of weakness.
